Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention Now Available on Social Media

22 November – Geneva, Switzerland – Social media will play an important role during the Tenth Meeting of the States Parties, 10MSP, to the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention which will take place from 29 November to 3 December 2010 in Geneva, Switzerland.

Friends of the Convention, media outlets and individuals from all over the world will be able to follow the 10MSP deliberations on Facebook and Twitter and see a pictorial summary of the day in the Convention’s Flickr account.

President-designate, Gazmend Turdiu, Secretary General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Albania says those interested “will now have an option to follow in real-time key moments of the meeting.”

“Journalists and those interested in receiving up-to-date information will be able to closely follow significant events of the meeting from all over the world,” said Turdiu.

Everyone can be informed of the precise moment when States Parties present their requests to extend deadlines for removing and destroying anti-personnel mines in mined areas, or be briefed in real-time, on the updates presented by countries responsible for significant numbers of survivors.
