Measures

The Government of Brunei Darussalam ratified the Ottawa Convention on 24 April 2006. The Convention entered into force on 1st October 2006.

Following Brunei Darussalam ratification, The Anti-Personnel Mines Convention Order 2006 has been drafted.

The Anti-Personnel Mines Convention Draft Order 2006 prohibits the development, production, acquisition, possession, transfer, stockpiling and placement of anti-personnel mines. The Draft Order also prohibits individuals to assist, encourage or induce, in any way, any person to engage in any activity. In the manner consistent with the Anti-Personnel Mines Convention, the Draft Order does not prohibit the acquisition, possession, transfer or placement of no more than the minimum number of anti-personnel mines deemed necessary for the development of and training in, mine detection, mine clearance or mine destruction techniques.

BRUNEI DARUSSALAM

The Draft Order requires individuals to disclose information necessary for Brunei Darussalam to meet its obligations under Article 7 of the convention and provides measures to facilitate the work of members of fact-finding mission to Brunei Darussalam, should such a mission be authorized under Article 8 of the Convention.

The Anti-Personnel Mines Convention Draft Order contains penalties including fines or imprisonment (the amount of fines and terms of imprisonment to be determined) or both for individuals who are found guilty of contravening provisions of the Order.
