

1

2

 Holistic approach to institutional capacity development of CMAC by JAPAN

1998-2009: capacity development for mine action in Cambodia combination of funding, machinery and expertise (technical aspects)

capacity development of not only CMAC individual staff
but also CMAC as an institution

2010-: Supporting implementation of South-South Cooperation by CMAC with other landmine/ERW contaminated countries

More than 500 participants in 30 programs

Colombia 2010-11 2017-22 163 psns				Iraq 2016-19 175 psns
Laos 2012-14 2015-17 2019-23 172 psns				Angola 2014-15 2016 51 psns

2017-2025: Enhancing CMAC's capacity as a partner organization contributing to mine action for other contaminated countries

3

3

 Advantages and contribution of South-South Cooperation in mine action

Facing similar challenges of landmines

- ◆ field: Landmines as obstacles for development
- ◆ policy level: to customize international standard in local context is not easy

- ✓ Sharing Information & knowledge accumulated in decades of experiences
->convincing & easy to use
- ✓ "Organization of conflict affected county can do it, why not us?"
->stimulating mindset and changing attitude
- ✓ Building network among staff beyond borders
->widening perspective
- ✓ Capacity development and confidence building of CMAC

国際協力機構

4

4

Mine Action for Peacebuilding of Conflict-Affected Countries

Sharing similar experiences of conflict & recovery

Rise of Motivations and ownership on mine action

Mine action in a manner of “do no harm/ do maximum good” promoting Peace of the country

- ✓ Mine action contributing to reconstruction and development of country as well as return and rebuilding community
- ✓ Mine action by ex-combatants promoting reintegration and reconciliation

国際協力機構

5