(iv) Implementation support

The implementation of the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention is facilitated by an implementation machinery, which comprises a President and four Committees as established by the Third Review Conference in 2014 and amended at the Fourth Review Conference in 2019. The Fifth Review Conference provides an opportunity to review the Convention's machinery.

The President will present his report on the meeting programme and machinery 2025 – 2029. The Conference will be asked to adopt a set of decisions based on the recommendations made in the President's report.

All delegations may comment on the implementation aspects of the proposed outcome documents of the Conference, including on any aspect of the proposed machinery that have not been discussed during previous agenda items. Delegations also may share other views on implementation support.

Further to the "Directive from the States Parties to the ISU" adopted by the 10MSP and the decisions of the 14MSP on strengthening financial governance and transparency, the ISU Director will present the following:

- The ISU's Five Year Work Plan and Budget 2025-2029 which was endorsed by the Coordinating Committee, in line with the decision of the Fourteenth Meeting of the States Parties;
- The work plan and budget for the activities of the ISU in 2025;
- The report on the 2024 ISU activities, functioning and finances; and
- The ISU's audited financial report for 2023.

⁴ Sudan, Ukraine and Yemen.

Delegations will be given the opportunity to provide comments and/or share their views on the ISU five-year work plan and budget, the work plan and budget 2025, the 2023 audit report, and the 2024 preliminary financial report.

Furthermore, on 25 July 2024, the President circulated a proposal to extend the tenure of the current Director of the ISU until 30 April 2027 with the incoming President (Japan (2025) and the President of the Twenty-Third Meeting of the States Parties, Zambia (2026)) tasked to work closely to develop an effective and well-planned recruitment process to ensure a smooth transition.

Delegations will be asked to agree on the extension of the current Director until 30 April 2027.

Committee membership:

In keeping with its mandate, in 2024 the President of the Fifth Review Conference undertook the task of consulting with States Parties to identify a list of nominees to serve as new Committee members following the Fifth Review Conference. On 1 April 2024, the President wrote to all States Parties to indicate that it was seeking two new States Parties for each of the four Committees for two-year terms. On the basis of interest expressed, the President has developed a proposal listing of States Parties to serve as new Committee members from the end of the Fifth Review Conference for a two-year term.

Delegations will be asked to agree on the proposed set of new officeholders (see proposal in Annex I).

The Conference will be asked to adopt decisions with respect to requests for extended mine clearance deadlines which have been or are due to be submitted by Afghanistan, Chad, Cyprus, Eritrea, Guinea Bissau, Niger, Peru and Serbia.

12. Dates, duration and locations of future meetings

Decisions for Meetings of the States Parties:

It is proposed that the Conference agree that, beginning in 2025, a Meeting of the States Parties be convened each year at the end of November or beginning of December until the end of 2028, and that the Sixth Review Conference will be held at the end of 2029.

It is further proposed that the Conference agree to hold the Twenty-Second Meeting of the States Parties in Geneva, Switzerland during the week of 1 to 5 December 2025.

Decisions for Intersessional Meetings

It is proposed that the Conference agree that Intersessional Meetings continue to be held annually in Geneva for a minimum of three days of plenary meeting.

Taking into account the need to allow ample time for discussions between the Convention's machinery and representatives of States Parties, States not party and other stakeholders on matters related to implementation of the Convention and the Siem Reap – Angkor Action Plan, the Conference will be further asked to agree that, the President in consultation with the Coordinating Committee considers and decides adding on an annual basis, one day to dedicate to bilateral meetings or to discuss thematic matters related to implementation.

It is further proposed that the Conference agree to set the dates of the Intersessional Meetings the week of 16-20 June 2025.

- Committee on the Enhancement of Cooperation and Assistance: Cameroon and Switzerland
- Committee on Cooperative Compliance: Belgium and Cambodia

If this proposal is agreed to by the Fifth Review Conference, the proposed States Parties would join the following States Parties which have already been Committee members for a year and will stay on the Committees until the end of the Twenty-Second Meeting of the States Parties:

- Committee on Victim Assistance: Burkina Faso and the Netherlands
- Committee on Article 5 Implementation: Thailand and the United Kingdom
- Committee on Enhancement of Cooperation and Assistance: Denmark and Türkiye
- Committee on Cooperative Compliance: Germany and Peru

d. Implementation Support Unit

The Fifth Review Conference will also need to adopt the ISU's 2024 interim report, the 2023 audited report, its work plan and budget for 2025-2029, and its work plan and budget for 2025. The work plans presented by the ISU have been developed in line with the decision of the Fourteenth Meeting of the States Parties on strengthening financial governance and transparency within the ISU.

Furthermore, States Parties will be asked to approve the proposed extension of the term of the current Director of the ISU until 30 April 2027. This follows a silence procedure launched on 25 July 2024 in which no reservations were expressed.

e. Report on the meeting programme and machinery 2025 – 2029

The President will present his report on the meeting programme and machinery 2025 – 2029. The Conference will be asked to adopt a set of decisions based on the recommendations made in the President’s report.

f. Dates, duration and location of future meetings

States Parties will be asked to take a decision on dates, duration and location of future meetings.

Twenty-Second Meeting of the States Parties

The Twenty-First Meeting of the States Parties decided to hold the Twenty-Second Meeting of the States Parties end of November – beginning of December 2025 and to elect Ambassador Tomiko Ichikawa, Permanent Representative of Japan to the Conference on Disarmament, as the President of the Twenty-Second Meeting.

At the Fifth Review Conference, the States Parties will be asked to agree that the Twenty-Second Meeting of the States Parties take place in Geneva, Switzerland, on 1-5 December 2025.

The Meeting adopted the estimated costs of the Twenty-Second Meeting, as contained in APLC/MSP.20/2022/14/Rev.1.

Twenty-Third Meeting of the States Parties

The Twenty-First Meeting of the States Parties decided to elect Ambassador Eunice Tembo Luambia, Permanent Representative of Zambia to the United Nations in Geneva, as the President of the Twenty-Third Meeting of the States Parties.

At the Fifth Review Conference, the States Parties will be asked to adopt the estimated costs of the Twenty-Third Meeting of the States Parties.

Meetings of the States Parties beyond the Twenty-Third Meeting of the States Parties

The Fifth Review Conference will be asked to elect any future presidencies based on expressions of interest submitted to the States Parties.

Intersessional Meetings

States Parties will be asked to agree that the next Intersessional Meetings take place in Geneva, Switzerland, the week of 16-20 June 2025.
